

Cleveland's little check out no small figure in the New York campaign.

The democrats are looking out for one more victory—that of getting Joe McKim out of jail.

A brewing company has been established in Milwaukee for the manufacture of "a non-alcoholic, non-intoxicating beverage from malt, hops and carbonic acid." It is stated by the directors that "the new beverage has the appearance and taste of beer, but can be partaken of with impunity by temperance people without a violation of their pledge." This new-fashioned beer is designed for use in Iowa and Kansas.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher had his pocket picked of a four hundred dollar gold watch in New York on Thursday. Very philosophically, Mr. Beecher said it was not a presentation watch, but a good time-piece, which he purchased in 1853. He then said cheerily, "If I don't get it, I have another in my pocket, and can do very well. I went over to New York to-day and laid the matter before the authorities. I had carried that watch over 500,000 miles, and lost it at last. It is the loss of the watch I mind so much, but the fact that some skunk has got it that won't appraise it; for it is a good watch."

The New York World, which represents the democratic party in that city and which supports the administration of President Cleveland, spoke in this wise after the election in New York:

The result in New York speaks in no uncertain sound in favor of adhering to the Jacksonian principle, "To the victors belong the spoils." And Cleveland was not convinced of the folly of his ramp alliance by the result in Ohio, the slip in the face given by his mother state will doubtless cause him to stop and think a little before it is too late.

Of course the papers like the Harper's Weekly, the New York Times and the Evening Post, will say that this is the voice of the incorrigible spoilsmen, but it is the sentiment, nevertheless, of the administration. These papers that imagine that Mr. Cleveland is a reformer, will likely say that all such utterances from democratic papers are simply the "discovered putrescences" of the democratic party. But such a yell seems to be well with the administration all the same.

It is said that President Cleveland is the second president since Buchanan who left Washington and journeyed home to vote. Buchanan returned to Lancaster to vote while president, but after him no president voted while in office until Arthur, who voted regularly in New York city. President Lincoln never saw his home in Springfield after he left it to be inaugurated president. Andrew Johnson, although a temperance partisan, did not return to the Greenville home to vote his party ticket. It has been stated on pretty good authority that Grant never voted but three times in his life. He was a Douglas democrat in 1860 and voted for him. In 1880 he voted for Garfield, and in 1884 for Blaine. He had never voted the republican ticket when he was elected president, and did not vote it or any other ticket until nearly four years after his retirement from office. President Hayes did not vote, or go home at any time, while he was president, and President Garfield did not live to see an election day after his inauguration.

The very earnest and exceedingly good women who recently met in a temperance convention in Philadelphia, got more radical than ever on the temperance question. They adopted a resolution to prohibit the sale of beer and to banish wine from the sacramental service. But all this is not at all strange. When a temperance convention of that kind will vote to sustain the rottenest political organization that ever existed, they are ready to do almost anything. Now let the Philadelphia women take one more step, and it is suggested to be that of resolving to prohibit the growing of grapes and apples. "If there were no apples and no grapes there would be no temptation to anyone to make wine or cider, and as the chief plank in the platform of these temperance reformers is the removal of all temptation from every body, it might be wise to begin with first principles in this matter. If Noah hadn't grown grapes he wouldn't have made wine, and if he hadn't made wine he wouldn't have got drunk." If they want to remove all temptations to drink from the sons of men, let them rise up and denounce the corn, for out of it whiskey is made; and apples, for they are need to feed the cider press; and grapes for from them comes the wine that sparkles. If the women desire to be radical let them be consistently radical.

It begins to look as if the country might have another "River and Harbor Congress" the coming session, judging from the manner in which the Mississippi River commission is preparing to bleed the treasury. It discusses its plans at some length, and the expenditures are set out in some detail. The cost of bank improvement between Cairo and Vicksburg up to June 30, 1885, has been $2,240,000, and of works for contracting the channel, $2,500,000. Some of the estimates for next year are interesting. They ask for $600,000 for continuing improvements from Des Moines Rapids to the mouth of the Illinois river, $100,000 from the mouth of the Illinois to Cairo and $300,000 for the lower river. But these sums are modest compared with those asked for building harbors along the river. The sum of $80,000 is asked for Columbus, Kentucky, $75,000 for Memphis and $20,000 for Vicksburg. Greenville, Mississippi, comes to the front in a demand for $180,000, New Orleans for $623,000, while Natchez will not be contented unless the sum of $700,000 is expended there for the purpose of erect-

EXODUS OF CHINESE.

PERSUADED TO LEAVE BY THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Seattle, W. T., To the Freed of the Almond Eyed Heathen—The Governor Clinton Lamar for Aid—A Mob at Tacoma.

SEATTLE, W. T., Nov. 6.—A joint meeting of the committee of Knights of Labor, a delegation of leading citizens, and a committee of Chinese property holders was held Thursday afternoon. It was represented to the Chairman that they could not depend upon being afforded protection if they persisted in remaining here in spite of the mob violence of the community. After consideration, the Chairman replied that they would agree to leave as rapidly as possible if their lives and property were protected while they were making preparations to go. This proposition was accepted. Laborers will leave at once. Many have already departed. Property holders and merchants will leave as soon as they can dispose of their property, guaranteeing them a safe passage to the coast. In return, citizens promised to aid them in preparations for leaving, and to protect them while here. About 100 are without money, and citizens are raising subscriptions to pay their passage to San Francisco. There is great rejoicing at the happy end of the agitation which for the past week has seemed certain to end in bloodshed. The Chairman has been afforded ample time and protection while preparing to leave. About 400 still remain here. A second anti-Chinese congress has been called to meet at Olympia, Nov. 21.

Appealing to the Government. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The governor of Washington territory just telegraphed to Secretary Lamar that the citizens of Tacoma had expelled about 200 Chinese from the city limits. Another telegram from the mayor of Seattle stated that the citizens of that city had expelled the Chinese. The Chinese in the territory have made an urgent appeal to the governor for protection, and a gubernatorial proclamation has been issued calling upon all citizens to assist in the preservation of order. The action was reported to Secretary Lamar, and, after a conference with the president, a telegram was sent to the governor of Washington territory requesting the issuance of his proclamation and directing him to use all means in his power to prevent further trouble.

The Strike at Galveston and Houston. HOUSTON, TEX., Nov. 6.—The situation in Houston, in connection with the strike at Galveston, is practically unchanged. Very little freight of any description is allowed to pass through Galveston proper, which virtually makes this point the key to the situation as far as hindering the progress of freight traffic bound for Galveston is concerned, as all the roads leading to Galveston run through Houston, with one exception, and freight traffic is reported suspended on that line.

While the strike is working hardships upon Galveston it is correspondingly benefiting Houston. Cotton for spinning and foreign points from Houston is being diverted to New Orleans by rail and is allowed to go through unmolested. The Knights of Labor are holding meetings daily, and their first efforts at boycotting seem to be so far successful.

Hocking Valley Labor Troubles. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 6.—At a meeting of the coal operators of the Hocking valley and Ohio central regions Thursday afternoon, it was voted to not grant the advance of 10 cents per ton demanded Tuesday. This action of the operators indicates another prolonged strike of the miners.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 6.—A private dispatch from Tacoma states that Chinatown, situated near the lower depot and wharf of the Northern Pacific railroad, had been burned by a mob, and that the railroad tracks, tracks, and other property had been damaged.

Memphis Canal. CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—At the meeting in this city Thursday of the Hennepin canal commission, Judge Murphy, by request, gave his views on the wisdom of the proposed change of the name of the commission. He said that inasmuch as the canal was intended to connect Lake Michigan with the Mississippi river no local name ought to be substituted, for the scheme was one of national importance. Governor Jones moved that the name of the commission be the Lake Michigan and Mississippi river canal commission, which motion was carried. Judge Murphy said that while the prospects of the Hennepin canal never seemed brighter than at present, all must put their shoulders to the wheel, and he thought the executive committee would have to hold itself in readiness to do much work at all times for the next five months. Judge Murphy thought much care ought to be exercised in the appointment of this committee.

The report of the nominating committee was called for, read, and adopted. The officers for the ensuing year are Joseph Utley, president; John C. Dore, first vice president; A. B. Miller, second vice president; Murray Nelson, treasurer; D. T. Litterer, secretary. The following were named members of the commission: A. Lynch, T. D. Caplin, T. E. McKinley, of Ottawa; J. Dyson, J. A. Hawley, S. C. Ellis, of Dixon; J. W. Stewart, Davenport; H. C. Cleveland, Rock Island; J. H. Sauter, Hannibal; H. Sanger, J. G. Ellwood, P. C. Halley, Joliet; Edward Atkinson, Boston, Mass.; A. Barrow, Carson, Minn.; Patrick Gibbins, Keokuk, Iowa; Judge W. B. Hoke, Louisville; William Cullen, Ottawa; Mayne Schullinger, Morris, Rosefield, Moine; James Nave, Kansas City.

Judge Yates' Difficulties. CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A special to The News of this city, states that Judge Yates, of Peoria, who attempted to commit suicide, as is reported, because of having mismanaged the estates of a number of widows who had placed their affairs in his hands, has made an assignment. The developments so far show a heavy shortage in the judge's accounts with the widows. Several of his clients have lost their life. The judge is recovering and may be able to explain his affairs when he is able to be about.

Arrested for Drunkenness. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Fred Pinkerton, the master workman of the Street Car Mfg. Co., was arrested Thursday, and together with four other members of the assembly was jailed, upon a charge of conspiracy. The detectives claim that they have positive evidence that these are the men who caused the explosions underneath several street cars two weeks ago. Dynamite and caps were found in the house of one of the men arrested, also letters incriminating the entire party.
